

Computer and Internet Code of Conduct

- Protect your account and computing privileges. Never share your logon and password information with other students. Never use others’ logon or password.
- Do not destroy, modify or abuse computer hardware or software in any way.
- Do not delete or add software or peripheral equipment to district computers without advance permission.
- Do not use personal wireless hotspot devices while at school.
- Do not utilize peripheral devices that act as computers or local area networks such as thumb drives with processing capability.
- Do not attempt to tunnel or VPN to another computer through the District network.
- Do not use the district’s network resources on personal devices such as smart phones or personal computers without advance permission.
- Keep food and beverages away from laptops and desktops at all times.
- Use district computers for educational purposes only. No personal, commercial or political activity is allowed.
- Do not use district computers for illegal, harassing, vandalizing, inappropriate or indecent purposes.
- Students should leave games, other non-district software, entertainment, and social networking at home.
- Do not use the Internet to access or process pornographic or otherwise inappropriate material.
- Be ethical and courteous. Do not send hate, harassing, or obscene mail; text or images; libelous, scandalous or discriminatory remarks; or demonstrate other antisocial behaviors. Such communications may be subject to school discipline, legal action, and/or police contact.
- District computers may not be used to interfere or disrupt other users, services or equipment, including distribution of unsolicited advertising (spam), propagation of viruses, or distribution of large quantities of information (chain letters, network games or broadcasting messages).
- Do not attempt to hide “windows,” close laptop lids, clear desktops, or turn off computers when staff approach.
- Never attempt to “hack” into another student’s or staff member’s account.
- Do not attempt to circumvent or disrupt district network and software resources such as firewalls, network traffic monitoring services, or web filters.
- Do not assume that because something is on the Internet that you can copy it.

Parent Permission for Photographing Students

Periodically, students are photographed by school district staff, program staff, and/or the media. These photos may be used online or in print materials related to WANIC communications. In order to assure students’ rights to privacy, please check one:

- WANIC has my permission to photograph my student.
- WANIC does NOT have my permission to photograph my student. Please inform your student if you check this box.

I have read and agree to the COMPUTER AND INTERNET CODE OF CONDUCT.

NOTE: The Code of Conduct applies even without signatures.

I have indicated my student photo option.

NOTE: If no option is selected, it will be assumed your student may be photographed.
